History of International Relations - course description

General information

Course name	History of International Relations
Course ID	05.5-WP-Poli2P-HoIR-21
Faculty	Faculty of Social Sciences
Field of study	WNS - oferta ERASMUS / Politologia
Education profile	-
Level of studies	First-cycle Erasmus programme
Beginning semester	winter term 2022/2023

Course information

Semester	1
ECTS credits to win	5
Course type	obligatory
Teaching language	english
Author of syllabus	• dr Piotr Pochyły

Classes forms

The class form	Hours per semester (full-time)	Hours per week (full-time)	Hours per semester (part-time)	Hours per week (part-time)	Form of assignment
Tutorial	15	1	-	-	Credit with grade

Aim of the course

The aim of this course is to introduce students to the history of international relations, to show their dynamics and influence on social, political and economic changes occurring in the world. On the background of global transformations, showing the process of Poland's return to the map of Europe.

Prerequisites

Scope

1. The era of the Congress of Vienna and the Holy Alliance (1815-1870): the formation and functioning of the Congress of Vienna system;
2. The new European equilibrium after the unification of Italy and Germany;
3. State-making processes in North America. The international role of the USA;
4. Between the World Wars (1918-1939): the birth, functioning, and destruction of the Versailles peace order;
5. From World War II to the onset of the "Cold War" (1939-1949); the process of Poland's return to the map of Europe.

Teaching methods

Work with texts; work with audiovisual material; individual work, discussion.

Learning outcomes and methods of theirs verification

Outcome description	Outcome symbols	Methods of verification	The class form
Knows and understands what the history of international relations is, what it serves, and how it is shaped.		• activity during classes current control during classes discussion observation and evaluation of activity during classes	• Tutorial
Knows the extent of his/her knowledge and skills, understands the need for continuous learning.		• activity during classes current control during classes discussion observation and evaluation of activity during classes	• Tutorial
Able to justify at a basic level his/her position and arguments in the course of discussion, referring to his/her own knowledge, world-view assumptions and cultural perceptions.		• discussion	• Tutorial

Outcome description	Outcome symbols	Methods of verification	The class form
Knows and understands the role of international relations in social and political life.		• activity during classes current control during classes discussion observation and evaluation of activity during classes	• Tutorial
Analyzes the politics of memory, forms of commemoration, and narratives relating to the past as they appear in public, academic, and social discourse.		• activity during classes current control during classes discussion observation and evaluation of activity during classes	• Tutorial

Assignment conditions

In order to pass the course, you must:

1) participate actively in classes.

Recommended reading

- Koliopoulos Constantinos, International Relations and the Study of History, https://oxfordre.com/internationalstudies/view/10.1093/acrefore/9780190846626.001.0001/acrefore-9780190846626-e-242.
- Hobson John M., Lawson George, What is History in International Relations?, "Millenium: Journal of International Studies", Vol. 37, No. 2.
- Wendt Jan A., Territory of II Rzeczypospolita in Central European classical geopolitcs, "Journal of Geography, Politics and Society", Year IV, no. 1(7), June 2014.
- Lubojemski Aleksander M., 19th Century American Imperialism. A Theoretical Outlook, In: The United States of America: Foreign Policy and International Law, ArchaeGraph, Poznań-Łódź 2018.

Further reading

Consistent with the presentation topics.

Notes

Modified by dr Magdalena Pokrzyńska (last modification: 25-04-2022 13:03)

Generated automatically from SylabUZ computer system